

Hufvudstaden welcomes Flippin' Burgers

At the beginning of October 2021, Flippin' Burgers will open a new restaurant in Hufvudstaden's premises at Norrlandsgatan 16 in Bibliotekstan. The new outlet, with a surface area of approximately 450sqm, will offer burgers made on site with ingredients from local and small-scale suppliers.

"Flippin' Burgers are pioneers of the burger world, and since 2012 we have served top-class burgers to our loyal customer base. Flippin's basic philosophy is all about the product: simple burgers, no fuss, made from scratch. Locally produced and small-scale are key to our success," says Viggo Broström, CEO of Tugg Burgers & Flippin' Burgers.

The restaurant on Norrlandsgatan will be Flippin' Burgers's second restaurant in Stockholm and the new outlet will strengthen Bibliotekstan's position as Scandinavia's leading meeting place for retail, fashion and dining experiences.

"We're delighted that Flippin' Burgers has chosen Hufvudstaden's premises for its latest outlet. Flippin' Burgers is an excellent complement to the existing restaurant offering and strengthens Bibliotekstan as a vibrant meeting place at the heart of the city," says Emanuel Westin, Head of Business Development, Retail at Hufvudstaden.
