Andersson Gustafsson Advokatbyrå leases from Hufvudstaden in Stockholm

Hufvudstaden will lease approximately 2,500 square metres in the NK Building in Stockholm to Andersson Gustafsson Advokatbyrå. The lease is for seven years, commencing in July 2015. The NK Building has 11,000 square metres of office space, which are gradually being refurbished to the highest standard.

"We are pleased to welcome Andersson Gustafsson Advokatbyrå to Hufvudstaden. As an office tenant in the NK Building they will have access to an extensive range of services to support their operations," says Ivo Stopner, President of Hufvudstaden.

Andersson Gustafsson Advokatbyrå is a commercial law firm specialising in construction and real estate law. It has around 60 employees and is one of the leading law firms in Sweden in its field.

"We are extremely pleased to have found new premises in Hufvudstaden's property holdings. We have considerable confidence in Hufvudstaden as a property owner," says Håkan Bjerle, Managing Partner, Andersson Gustafsson Advokatbyrå.
